

Heartland Environmental and Resource Economics Workshop, September 23-24, 2001

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

(All sessions and meals in the Scheman Building, Iowa State University, Ames)

10:30-11:00 REGISTRATION AND CHECK-IN: Scheman Building (Lobby, Second Floor)

11:00-12:30 WELCOMING REMARKS (Room 275, Second Floor)

Cathy Kling, Department of Economics, Iowa State University

LUNCHEON and KEYNOTE ADDRESS

“Control of Stock Pollutants.”

Larry Karp, University of California, Berkeley

1:00- 3:00 VALUATION (Room 220)

Moderator: Brent Hueth

“Valuing Outdoor Amenities in Texas.”

Skip Crooker, Texas Tech University

“Estimating the Demand for Coastal Sea Paddling Trips: An Application of the Kuhn-Tucker Demand Model.”

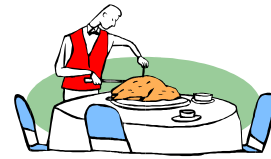

Dan Phaneuf, North Carolina State University

“Kuhn-Tucker Recreation Demand Models with Large Choice Sets: An Application to Beach Recreation.”

Dan Phaneuf, N.C. State University; Roger von Haefen, Bureau of Labor Statistics; and George Parsons, University of Delaware

“Welfare from Voluntary Contributions to Public Goods.”

Matthew Kotchen and Michael Moore, University of Michigan

3:00-3:15 BREAK: Coffee, Tea, and Beverages (Lobby, South end of Second Floor)

3:15-5:15 AGRICULTURE AND THE ENVIRONMENT (Room 220)

Moderator: Jinhua Zhao

“Additive versus Proportional Pest Damage Functions: Why Ecology Matters.”

Paul Mitchell, Texas A&M University

“Targeting Costs and Multiple Environmental Benefits in Conservation Payments: Some Empirical Estimates.”

Lyubov Kurkalova, Catherine Kling, and Jinhua Zhao, Iowa State University

“Green Payments and Dual Policy Goals.”

Hongli Feng and Brent Hueth, Iowa State University

“Incentives for Technology Adoption under Environmental Policy Uncertainty: Implications for Green Payment Programs.”

Murat Isik, Mississippi State University

5:30-7:30 RECEPTION: Wine, hors d'oeuvres, and music in the Second Floor Lobby

EVENING: Dinner on your own

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

(All sessions and meals in the Scheman Building)

7:30-8:00      CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST (Lounge 182, First Floor)

8:00-9:45      AG AND THE ENVIRONMENT: BT CORN (Room 175, First Floor)

Moderator: Chris Azevedo

“Economic Analysis of Adoption of Bt Corn on Agriculture in the United States.”

Hong-Jin Kim, Keith Sargent, Edward Brandt, and Robert Torla, U.S.
Environmental Protection Agency

“The Economics of Insect Resistance, Refuge Size, Grower Compliance, Resistance Monitoring, and Remedial Action Plans for Bt Crops.”

Keith Sargent, Sharlene Matten, Edward Brandt, and Robert Torla, U.S. EPA; and Felicia Wu, Carnegie Mellon University

“Managing European Corn Borer Resistance to Bt Corn with Dynamic Refuges.”

Silvia Secchi, Iowa State University; and Terrance Hurley, University of Minnesota

9:45-10:00    BREAK: Coffee, Tea, and Beverages (Lounge 182)

10:00-12:00    LAND USE ISSUES (Room 175)

Moderator: Bruce Babcock

“Multifamily Residential Recycling: It Isn’t Easy Being Green.”

Amy Ando and Anne Gosselin, University of Illinois

“Optimal Land Acquisition with Endogenous Land Prices.”

Elizabeth Marshall, Pennsylvania State University; and Frances Homans,
University of Minnesota

“Cooperation Among Common Property Resource Users.”

Nori Tarui and Stephen Polasky, University of Minnesota; Gregory Ellis,
Seattle University; and Charles Mason, University of Wyoming

12:00-1:15    LUNCHEON AND SPECIAL SPEAKER (Room 167)

“If the Future Could Speak to Us, It Would Ask Us to Discount...
But That’s Not All It Would Say”

Alan Randall, The Ohio State University

1:30-3:00 ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATION (Room 175)

Moderator: Quinn Weninger

“Lender Liability for Environmental Accidents: Implications of Observability.”

Emma Hutchinson and Klaas van’t Veld, University of Michigan

“Compliance with Water Pollution Limits:

Is Enforcement or Community Pressure Necessary or Sufficient?”

Dietrich Earnhart, University of Kansas

“Distributional Effects of Alternative Vehicle Pollution Control Policies.”

Sarah West, Macalester College

3:00-3:15 BREAK: Coffee, Tea, and Beverages (Lounge 182)

3:15-4:45 NEW DIRECTIONS IN ENVIRONMENTAL ECONOMICS (Room 175)

Moderator: Joe Herriges

“Green Markets and the Private Provision of Environmental Public Goods.”

Matthew Kotchen, University of Michigan

“Conservation Capital and Sustainable Economic Growth.”

Donna Theresa J. Ramirez and Madhu Khanna, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign; and David Zilberman, University of California-Berkeley

WORKSHOP ENDS: Thanks for coming!

